CONCLUSION

The field trip to the Regain village was a successful initiative in promoting equal rights for girls and boys. It provided valuable insights into the community's perspective on gender equality and highlighted the need for continued efforts to address gender disparities. It helped the students

- To assess the current state of gender equality in the village
- To empower girls and boys with knowledge about their rights
- To understand the cultural context and its impact on gender equality

The people of the village were enlightened and encouraged to treat the girls and boys in the family equally.
