6. Detail description of the event:

The one-week Life Skills program on "Financial Independence and Budgeting" took place from October 4-10 April, 2024, under the guidance of Professor Amrit Minj from Commerce Department. This program aimed to empower participants with essential financial literacy skills for effective money management.

Objectives :

To provide tools and techniques for creating and maintaining personal budgets, helping students to make financial choices. Feedback highlighted a greater awareness of financial responsibilities and the importance of saving for future goals. Professor Amrit Minj's expertise and engaging teaching style fostered an enriching learning environment. Overall, the program equipped participants with vital skills for financial independence, enabling them to navigate their financial futures with greater confidence and responsibility. Professors of the department praised Mr. Minj for his contribution for giving training to students.

7. Outcome: The program successfully achieved its objectives, with participants reporting increased confidence in managing their finances. Interactive workshops and practical exercises on budgeting and financial planning allowed participants to apply concepts in real-life scenarios. Such as students learn how to manage their pocket money and their future money after a job and budget it properly.
