Student Development Program Organized by the Department of Political Science: Guest Lecture by Mrs. Pushplata Dungdung from St. Albert College, Chainpur, Jharkhand. On 18/12/2023 the Department of Political Science organized a student development program featuring a guest lecture by Mrs. Pushplata Dungdung, a distinguished academician and expert from St. Albert College, Chainpur. The event aimed to enrich students' understanding of contemporary political issues and provide insights into career opportunities in the field of political science.

Mrs. Pushplata Dungdung commenced the program with an insightful lecture on the role of political science in addressing current societal challenges and fostering sustainable development. Her expertise in governance, public policy, and international relations provided students with a comprehensive overview of the practical applications of political science theories.

Objectives Achieved:

Enhanced Learning: The lecture deepened students' understanding of political science concepts and their real-world implications, offering practical insights into policy formulation and implementation.

Career Guidance: Mrs. Dungdung shared her career journey and offered valuable advice on pursuing careers in academia, research, and public service within the realm of political science.

Networking Opportunities: Students had the opportunity to network with Mrs. Dungdung and fellow peers interested in political science, fostering connections that could lead to future collaborations and mentorship.

The student development program featuring Mrs. Pushplata Dungdung was a significant success, aligning with the department's objectives to enrich academic experiences and prepare students for professional careers in political science. The insightful lecture and interactive sessions not only broadened students' perspectives but also motivated them to actively pursue their academic and professional goals in
