ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my special thanks of gratitude to my teacher Asst. Prof. Dr. Mannu Kr. Sharma as well as our Principal Dr. Fr. M.K. Jose who gave me the golden opportunity to do this field project on the topic “Study of Yasodhara: Maithilisharan Gupta” which also helped me to develop my skills and knowledge.

I am also grateful to my classmates and friends for their help in finding sources and gathering data and to complete this project within the limited time frame.

Last but not the least; I want to thank all my supporters who have motivated me to fulfill the project before the timeline.

CONCLUSION

Participating in a historical trip to Nalanda, Rajgir, and Bodhgaya was a rich and insightful experience for all students. Field trips offer the opportunity to learn beyond the confines of the classroom, bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical understanding. These visits not only pique students' interest but also provide a chance to experience and connect with history, culture, and heritage. The excursion enhanced the participants' appreciation of these remarkable heritage sites.
