2. Organizing Department: Department of Geography and Economics
3. Date / Duration: 11th November, 2025
4. Coordinator of the Event: Assistant Professor Rozy Sushmita Tirkey
5. Number of Participants: 56 Students

6. Objective of the Event:

The Department of Geography and Economics of St. Xavier's College, Autonomous Mahuadanr, organized a Painting Competition on the occasion of Jharkhand Diwas, celebrated every year on 15th November to mark the foundation day of the state of Jharkhand. The event aimed to promote awareness among students about the rich cultural heritage, natural resources, and socio-economic development of the state.

7. Detailed Description of the Event:

The Department of Geography and Economics organized a Painting Competition to celebrate Jharkhand Diwas on 15th November. The theme of the painting competition was "Vibrant Jharkhand: Culture, Nature, and Development." Students from various departments participated enthusiastically and expressed their creativity through colors and imagination. The paintings beautifully portrayed the essence of Jharkhand—its tribal traditions, festivals, landscapes, and developmental journey. The celebration began with a short introduction highlighting the significance of Jharkhand Diwas and the contribution of Birsa Munda, the great tribal freedom fighter and symbol of pride for the state. Faculty members encouraged students to understand and preserve the unique identity and diversity of Jharkhand. A panel of judges evaluated the paintings on the basis of creativity, theme presentation, and overall impact. The winners were felicitated with certificates and prizes.

- 3. Organizing Department: Department of Botany and Zoology
- 4. Date: 13th November, 2025
- 5. Venue: Botany Lab
- 6. Number of Participants: 44
- 7. Objective of the Event:

The main objective of organizing the Collage Competition on the occasion of 25th Jharkhand's Foundation Day was to encourage students to explore and represent the rich cultural heritage, freedom struggle, and tourism potential of Jharkhand. The event aimed to promote artistic expression, creativity, and awareness among students about the state's glorious history, cultural diversity, and natural beauty. It also sought to build teamwork, participation, and enthusiasm among the students through a creative and educational medium.

8. Detailed Description of the Event:

The Department of Botany and Zoology, St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Mahuadanr, organized a Collage Competition on 13th November 2025 at 1:00 PM in the Botany Laboratory to mark the 25th Jharkhand Foundation Day. The theme of the competition was "Jharkhand's Freedom Fighters, Heritage, and Jharkhand Tourism." Students participated individually or in pairs and creatively depicted various aspects of Jharkhand's culture, history, and tourist attractions through their collages. Participants brought their own materials such as chart papers, photographs, glue, and colours, and prepared visually appealing and informative collages. The event was judged by invited faculty members Asst. Professors Ronit Marcel Xess, Rozy Sushmita Turkey, Vikram Rajat Dumdung, and Mrs. Aruna Kujur, who evaluated the collages on parameters like creativity, relevance to the theme, presentation, and overall impact. The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across various departments, showcasing their talent and deep understanding of Jharkhand's identity.

Concluding Ceremony

- 1. Title of the Program: Cultural Programs
- 2. Organizing Cell: St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Mahuadanr
- 3. Date: 14th November, 2025
- 4. Number of Participants: 613
- 5. Detailed Description of the event:

Jharkhand Foundation Day was celebrated with grandeur, cultural pride, and academic excellence at St. Xavier's College, Mahuadanr. The programme began with the College Anthem and a traditional folk song, filling the entire campus with an atmosphere of joy, energy, and vibrant cultural diversity. Addressing the gathering, the Principal, Dr. Fr. M. K. Jose, said: "Jharkhand's formation is not merely a political achievement but the result of a long journey of struggle, identity, and self-respect. The true meaning of Jharkhand Day lies in ensuring that our students preserve the identity, art, culture, and values of this state while bringing positive change to society through education and service." He appreciated the enthusiastic participation of students in all the competitions and stated that such activities help develop leadership, creativity, and confidence among learners. On this occasion, various competitions were organized over the past four days, in which students participated with great enthusiasm and creativity.

The program was graced by Sri Ramchandra Singh, Hon'ble MLA, Manika, as the Chief Guest. In his inspiring address, he said: "Jharkhand's identity lies in its rich tribal culture, natural beauty, and legacy of struggle. Today, we respectfully remember all those who contributed to the formation of this state. The youth must actively contribute to education, technology, environmental protection, and social awareness." Appreciating the various competitions conducted by the college, he remarked that such initiatives help develop leadership, artistic skills, and critical thinking among students. The celebration featured colourful performances of Jharkhand's folk dance, songs, and music, which mesmerized the audience. The event was successfully organized with the cooperation of teachers, students, and guests, celebrating Jharkhand's culture, history, and glorious journey with dignity and pride.
